Resources

Hot Wheels and AcceleRacers have produced a worksheet for all Beaver Scouts, along with leader notes. A copy of the blueprint is also available.

Emergency Aid

Young people should be trained and assessed using the syllabus and resources provided in conjunction with the British Red Cross. These are published on <http://www.scouts.org.uk/emergencyaid/> and supporting programme material for the first three stages can be found on Programmes Online.

At each stage Leaders should not assume prior knowledge but should cover the full syllabus using instruction games and exercises to reinforce the learning.

For stages 1 – 3 ongoing assessment is acceptable.

For stages 4 and 5 a more structured assessment at the end of the course is recommended to test knowledge.

Emergency Aid 1

Complete the requirements below.

1. Understand and recognise dangers in the house and outside.
2. Know what to do at the scene of an accident.
3. Know how to open an airway.
4. Know how to treat minor cuts, scratches and grazes.

Notes

This stage requires 1 to 2 hours activity/learning and should be trained and assessed by an adult or young leader familiar with the resource material.

Emergency Aid 2

Complete the requirements below.

1. Know what to do at the scene of an accident.
2. Know how to get help from the emergency service.
3. Know how to clear an airway and place in the recovery position.
4. Know how to deal with minor bleeding.
5. Know how to deal with major bleeding.
6. Know how to deal with burns and scalds.

Notes

This requires 2 / 3 hours of training/activity and should be trained and assessed by an adult or young leader with First Response or equivalent external qualifications, familiar with the resource material.

A young person holding a first aid award covering this or a similar syllabus from a recognised First Aid provider (such as the Young Life Savers key stage 2 [8 – 11yrs] or the Save a Life from the British Red Cross) automatically qualifies for this stage of the award.

Experiment

Complete the following:

1. Decide what to do and try and work out what might happen
2. Investigate something of interest to find out how it works; or grow something from seed
3. Tell others in the Colony what they saw and discovered.

Partnership Awards

The young person must complete the following requirements:

1. Identify a partner and a project or activity that relates to the themed area – Environment, Faith or International Friendship.
2. Together with those involved, set objectives for what you wish to achieve and plan the project.
3. Take part and successfully complete the joint activity.
4. Assess the benefits to those involved.
5. Award the Partnership Award to those Members taking part.

Time requirement

There is no set time requirement associated with the award. Project Leaders should work with partners to establish a realistic timetable bearing in mind the ages and availability of the Sections or partners involved.

Leaders should be guided by the principle that young people should make a significant time contribution, while experiencing new and challenging personal development opportunities, as is appropriate to their age and availability. For example, Beaver Scouts might undertake one hour per week for four weeks at their Colony meeting, with a two-hour project one Saturday. However, Explorer Scouts might contribute 32 hours over the course of two weekends within the same project.

Partners

A partner may be within Scouting, including Scout Network(s) or an appropriate external organisation.

Examples would include:

- A Beaver Scout Colony, Cub Scout Pack, Scout Troop, Explorer Scout Unit and a Scout Network working together
- A Beaver Scout Colony, Cub Scout Pack and a Scout Troop working together
- Four Explorer Scout Units working together
- A Scout Troop with a local British Trust for Conservation Volunteers
- A Scout Network working with a local authority or Scout Fellowship.

International Friendship Partnership Award

Example activities

- Beaver Scouts and Cub Scouts organise an 'unfair games' event with the local Oxfam Committee to draw attention for the need for Fair Trade
- Scout Groups spend a weekend bag packing to raise funds for a charity
- Beaver Scouts and Cub Scouts organises a penny fair to buy goats for an African family
- A local Scout Troop acts as a host to Dutch Scouts for a weekend camp at a local site
- Explorer Scouts perform a two-mile walk for charity.

Environment Partnership Award

Example activities

- Scouts link with young ornithologists to make and set up bird boxes in local woodland
- Explorer Scouts work with the Waterways Trust on canal restoration project
- Cub Scouts work with local villagers to clear and renovate a churchyard
- Explorer Scouts work with a local building contractor to paint a historical mural on the temporary wall surrounding the building site
- Scouts and Guides design and decorate a float for the local carnival on a local heritage theme.

Faith Partnership Award

Example activities

- Scout Troop builds links with the local Sikh community culminating in a Scout's Own and campfire
- A Jewish Cub Scout Pack pairs with a Chinese community youth group for a special festival, in each culture e.g. Jewish New Year and Lunar New Year. Together they prepare their place of worship, make decorations for homes and explore the stories of each tradition
- A Catholic Scout Group works with their Parish team to organise a series of special youth liturgies during Holy Week
- A Scout Group participates fully in the local Parish's harvest festival and distributes the produce after the service to those in need
- A Muslim Scout Troop shares details about one of its festivals and an Open Scout Troop illustrates how it celebrates a variety of festivals with its members.
